

Youth is Life

MENTORSHIP/LEADERSHIP SKILL SET PROGRAM

Huntington Road
Athens Georgia 30606
(678)-768-8820

Youthislifeathens@gmail.com

Established: June 10,2017

September 10th,2022

Dear Community,

Main Goals:

- 1.) Build authentic communication,community,transparency and partnerships. Providing a space for community members who are most impacted by the juvenile Justice system,generational curses, and work with those most impacted by the system's of life. We are here to foster relationships that may have tension and division in the community. We will invite the community to come together to bring unity into the community. Addressing the basic needs,perspectives and lack of support from the community.
- 2.) We will increase the capacity of the community and support our community. Building true relationships assisting people with overcoming obstacles and challenges. It's all about reclaiming your voice or finding your voice,power and Why!

About Youthislife.org:

Youthislife.org advocates for prevention,intervention,mental health, social skills,accountability and re-entry. We are network-builders, action planners and solution-based organization for youth and families Justice. Teaching families to break the cycles together. Youthislife.org work is innovative, creative and healing. Holding families accountable,teaching life skills,mental health and mindset wellness.

Youthislife.org will lift youth and supportive families' voices by strategies, writing an action plan and taking the first steps. We will continue to help define the problems and craft the solutions.

Youthislife.org mission is to support youth and young adults ages 10 and older, in transition from incarceration, homelessness, substance abuse,breaking generational curses and barriers. Improving the health of our community by ensuring access to resources,quality mental health,prevention services,education and professional development. We walk alongside our youth and families as they become a student of life. We Coach new ways of living and discovering their gifts,why,and purpose as they follow their dreams, by building their own brand and legacy!

We work with our youth and families remotely or meet them where they are,our services provide base needs,resources and our distribution clothes closet is open for all. In the last 3 years, we have served a total of 3,000 families.

Sincerely,

Coach Mykeisha Ross